Apparently Home Is Much Safer for the Husband as He Spends Less Time There

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: Home is a safer place for the husband than for the wife. Because she spends more time in it, she is twice as likely to have an accident there.

But home seems to be a pretty dangerous place for anybody. In a recent year there were 22 million home accidents, compared to nine million on the job.

Women not only talk more than men — they also talk faster. The average U.S. woman speaks at the rate of 175 syllables a minute, the average man 150. But a Frenchwoman can blur along at 350 syllables a minute.

Does an electrical storm frighten you? Save your fears for something more important. Only three out of a million people are struck by lightning each year.

Learning isn't just for the young. More than 25 million Americans now are pursuing some form of voluntary education.

Last year metropolitan area suburbs had a bigger population, 68 million, than central cities with 61 million.

Prosperity note: Experts estimate it now takes from $50,000 to $75,000 to buy the acreage, equipment and livestock to start a successful farm. But the investment seems to pay off. The average farmer's net income has risen 40 per cent in the last five years.

Only 18 states require annual safety inspection of cars.

Don't get your dander up if someone calls you a psephologist. He just means you are a scientific student of elections.

Modern morality: Some 85 per cent of brides are pregnant in all marriages today in which both partners are high school pupils. About one in every 20 American babies today is born out of wedlock.

The price of hate: Some psychiatrists believe that holding grudges against others can reduce by 50 per cent your potential level of personal happiness. So, if you can't forgive or forget, it's yourself you hurt most.

Happenings in the World on Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The two Gemini 8 astronauts, as if talking about a quiet drive in the country, told a news conference over the weekend of their wild ride aboard their tumbling spacecraft.

Neil A. Armstrong and Air Force Lt. Col. David R. Scott said Saturday the sensation of riding in the gyrating craft was similar to that experienced in a spinning airplane.

Armstrong, civilian command pilot, said the tumble when the Gemini and an Agena rocket were docked "began to increase to a point where we felt the structural integrity of the combination . . . (was) in jeopardy."

The weekend also produced a series of demonstrations against the Viet Nam war.

Thousands marched down New York City's Fifth Avenue in the showpiece protest Saturday. Others demonstrated in cities scattered across the nation, including Washington, San Francisco, Boston, Detroit, Chicago and Philadelphia.

In Moscow, top Kremlin leaders turned out to welcome a North Vietnamese delegation which came to attend the Soviet Communist party congress opening Tuesday. The Kremlin action underscored the importance the Kremlin attaches to North Viet Nam, which Red China has been trying to win over to its side.

Indonesian President Sukarno announced a new reform Cabinet which he said will get its orders from him as Indonesia's "great leader." But the Cabinet includes Lt. Gen. Suharto and Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, two anti-Communists who figured in the ouster of Sukarno's pro-Chinese Communist regime.

At home, a sports car smashed into a crowd at the Sebring, Fla., 12-hour auto race Saturday, killing four spectators. Three of the victims were a father and his two sons. Earlier, Canadian driving champion Bob McLean was killed in a fiery crash in the race.

The nation's 712 Social Security offices will stay open at night this week so persons who are 65 and older by Jan. 1 can sign up for Medicare. The offices will be open until 9 p.m. today, Tuesday and Wednesday and until midnight Thursday — the deadline.

Also over the weekend, the ousted ruler of Bihar State in central India, Pravin Chandra Bhanjdeo, and seven followers were found dead in his palace.

Marines Kill 150 as Forces Pound Enemy

By THOMAS A. REEDY
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. forces pounded Communist territory by land, air and sea today but only the Marines reported major contact with the enemy.

The Leathernecks fought a three-hour battle with North Vietnamese regulars Monday on the central coast near Quang Ngai City, killing an estimated 150 Reds, a Marine spokesman said. The Communists offered stiff resistance to the first Marine helicopters, inflicting moderate casualties, but U.S. planes and artillery quelled the resistance.

Rising Buddhist political agitation in Saigon brought warning from Premier Nguyen Cao Ky that he will take "very strong measures" if necessary to halt the demonstrations.

Speaking to foreign newsmen while 1,000 students demonstrated in another part of the city against his military regime and the United States, Ky promised to act "not for the survival of the government but for the survival of Viet Nam."

The students cheered and banged their desks to the Buddhist-led rally as speakers charged Ky's junta with puppet-like subservience to the United States. They also called for peace in Viet Nam.

The Marines ran into the North Vietnamese troops in Operation Indiana, a new campaign in Quang Ngai Province 330 miles northwest of Saigon, which has been under Viet Cong threat or control for years.

Intelligence reports identified the Reds as elements of North Viet Nam's 1st Battalion which has fought the Marines twice before this month. "They must be looking for a big victory in this area," a Marine officer said.

A daring charge against an enemy bunker by Marine Pfc. Alvin S. Lapointe of Sudbury, Mass., relieved one Marine company pinned down by a 20mm cannon. The 19-year-old Leatherneck crawled to within five feet of the bunker, jumped in and landed atop the gun. He killed one of the Red gunners with his bayonet and got the other with a grenade.

Top bonus paid to a Los Angeles Dodger was the $100,000 received by outfielder Willie Crawford.

S. Africans Go to Polls Wednesday

By ROBERT N. LINDSAY
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — About two million whites will vote Wednesday for the government that is to rule South Africa's 18 million people. The basic issue is how the government can best insure that the country's 3 million whites continue to dominate the nation's 14 million nonwhites. Most of the competing parties support the principle of white supremacy.

Premier Hendrik Verwoerd's Nationalist party, in power 17 years, is strongly backed to win, probably with an increased majority. Balloting is for members in the all-white House of Assembly. Only adult whites can vote. Men and women are on the same franchise.

Four white members are elected separately by the country's almost two million colored — people of mixed blood. The total seats being contested Wednesday is 168.

Verwoerd's party won 65 per cent of the contested seats five years ago. The main opposition is the United party led by Sir De Villiers Graaff.

Though the country has been drenched by a torrent of political speeches and campaign literature, the campaign produced few fireworks. One United party rally was broken up by thugs after a policeman had his face cut. Campaign posters have been smeared with swastikas and university students have shouted down United party speakers.

A Nationalist candidate who sent a campaign circular to Jewish voters asking them as Jews to vote for him had his knuckles rapped by the Jewish press and by Johannesburg's Sunday Times.

The difference between the two main parties is largely one of degree, not substance.

Crew of 10 Now Making Installation

A substantial amount of complex central office switching equipment, which will enable local telephone users to dial virtually all their own long distance calls direct, has arrived here and is now being installed in the Southwestern Bell — Arkansas building in Hope.

Bill O'Neal, Hope wire chief for the telephone company, said a crew of about 10 men from the Western Electric Company is now connecting the tremendous amount of facilities necessary to bring customer direct distance dialing to Hope, Ashdown and Bodcaw this summer.

"There's a great deal of equipment involved, and we will be working as quickly as possible to bring DDD to our customers here," O'Neal said.

"Each of the 'frames' we use in a telephone central office," he explained, "is about 10 feet tall and three feet wide. It will take about 45 additional frames of equipment of this type to bring direct distance dialing to local telephone users, and that is a sizeable amount of additional equipment."

The wire chief also said a special training course was now being held in Hope with an instructor from Little Rock showing O'Neal and his men how to maintain and operate the new equipment.

The wire chief said thorough testing of this new equipment would probably take place in the month of May, with the actual cutover taking place after that, when all procedures have been given a complete going-over and check.

Hope will serve as a long distance switching center for a number of other cities and for a lot of towns in this area where telephone service is provided by Southwestern Bell — Arkansas, and also for a number of other communities served by independent telephone companies.

CHATTER

By: "BILL"

Just read an interesting article about the little girl who put her cat in the washing machine. Seems he came in all muddy and she dropped him in and turned it on. When she opened the washer . . . the cat made a clean get-away, scratched her good, took off, and has not been seen since. No doubt one of his nine lives is gone.

"We do not have washable cats at Raley's but we sure do have some smart looking dresses that are positively guaranteed to wash and dry like new!"

"For instance . . . now listen to this, especially the price. All of these new spring fashionable Kabros and Avalons are the same price, a mere $16.00."

"The Commuter Suit, a crisp, two-piece dress of novelty checked cotton in navy and black only, regular sizes; The Town Shirtwaist, a soft Spring fabric blend of polyester and rayon in pretty pastels, unpressed pleats shape a graceful skirt. The saddestitch skimmer, wear it without the belt or with it, in aqua, coral and tan, sizes 10 to 20; a casual seersucker shift, bias patch pockets, yoke in back and buttons below the waist, acetate and cotton, wear it ANY old where!"

"These are but a few of the $16.00 styles, see them all today."

"And while you are here, we will show you more . . . the place is Raley's Style Shoppe . . . Hope's House of Fashion"

"Arkansas Music" was the theme of the second part of the program under the direction of Mrs. James McLarty. All sang "Arkansas" accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Hyatt. Accompanying herself on the guitar, Susan Rogers sang "The Battle of New

Similar flowers were given to her mother, Mrs. John Griffin Harrison, of Prescott and to her fiancée's mother, Mrs. Richard Byron Arnold. Mrs. Baker met the guest at the door and introduced the receiving line.

Carrying out the chosen color of the bride-elect, green and white, the tea table was very pretty. A white maderia cloth was used on it with white stock and leatherleaf fern reflecting in a mirror over the buffet between silver candelabra which held white tapers. Mrs. A. J. Reynolds of Texarkana, aunt of the bridegroom-elect, served the frozen lime punch, while Mrs. Ronnie J. Burke, cousin of the bride-elect, served individual cakes topped with white wedding bells and green bows.

White stocks and pom-pom chrysanthemums were seen on the coffee table. Inviting the guests into the room where many pretty and useful gifts were displayed was Mrs. W. R. Mosley, aunt of the bridegroom-elect. Another of his aunts, Mrs. Jimmy Arnold, had charge of the guest book. Among those

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
A Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What will the next television season bring?

According to an NBC executive, the outlook is for less far-out comedy, status quo in Westerns, a slight increase in spies, and bountiful specials.

The spokesman is Grant Tinker, West Coast vice president for programming, an amiable chap without the usual close-to-the-vest attitude of network weeps.

He speaks his mind, as in his observation about canned vs. spontaneous television: "I think we have gone about as far as we can go—or at least we have reached the peak—of filmed television. I believe the time has arrived for television to begin to deliver some of the promise it demonstrated in its earlier days."

"It's time for television to come up with some of the things that are unique to the medium—programs like 'Person to Person'—rather than things that are borrowed from earlier forms."

"What we need in television is more opportunity to fail, more chance to experiment rather than playing it safe all the time. I believe the new commands in the networks may have this in mind. I'm sure the people are ready for it to happen."

"I don't know whether it was the Kennedy assassination, Viet Nam, the Watts riots, the space shots or whatever. But whatever the reason, the fact remains that there are thinking people out there who want something more from television than normal entertainment."

Sad to say, television will not reflect this attitude in the 1966-67 season. NBC is the first network to lock up its schedule, and it appears to be offering omre of the same. But NBC generally is admitted to present a wider variety of programming than its sister networks.

Tinker's own favorites among the new shows: "The Hero," misadventures of a television cowboy star (Richard Mulligan) who is "all-thumbs" at home; "Hey, Landlord," Will Hutchins and Sandy Baron in a comedy centered in a New York brownstone apartment building; a half-hour musical starring Roger Miller; "T.H.E. Cat," with Robert Loggia as a professional bodyguard.

NBC will continue with two movies per week, but Tinker admitted the supply may grow scarce in a couple of years.

"We've ordered six to eight two-hour features made especially for television by Universal," he added. "They will be used to help fill out the schedule, and it's entirely possible that they will help settle the pattern for supplying feature-length movies when we run out of Hollywood's old product."

Says Hubbys Happy on That Journey

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Contrary to bleats from harnessed husbands, that trip down the aisle into wedlock is the happiest journey ever, a psychiatrist affirms.

And, Dr. Genevieve Knupfer added, despite the bachelor's galling tplayboy image, eances are he's really a lonely, doubting, rejected wretch.

Old maids, Dr. Knupfer's survey indicates, seem to get along just fine.

Dr. Knupfer, who works at the Mental Research Institute here, conducted a survey among 785 adults of at least 23 years of age who a remarried or had never been married. Her findings:

Married men scored highest in happiness, job satisfaction and high spirits. Scoring above married women, single men and single gals.

Married men worried less, were less likely to feel lonely and depressed.

Bachelors, in contrast, were more likely to be dissatisfied and out of step with the world.

They were three times more likely to say they were unhappy, and four times more likely than single women to be dissatisfied with their jobs.

Dr. Knupfer said her studies also showed single men were more likely to have had childhood difficulties, were likely to have lived with only one parent, to be uncertain that their parents loved them and found parental authority irksome.

Single women, conversely, seem to have enjoyed the happiest childhood of all four categories, Dr. Knupfer said, adding that the old saying "happy marriages produce old-maid daughters" could be true.

As for maladjustment, she said, the single men lose out again to the old maids. The answer seems to be cultural factors, she explained.

Dr. Knupfer said that since women are usually more anxious to get married, the fellows who escape the competitive race are more likely to be mere rejects.

"Because of the greater freedom of choice men have in the marriage market," she said, "it seems likely that those among them who are either unable or unwilling to get married were more psychologically impaired to begin with."

The gals most apt to be passed up by the marriageable men, she said, were the ones with the strongest personalities and other positive traits. Men, she said, prefer to feel superior to their wives.

General Is New Power in Indonesia

By DON HUTH
JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—A quiet general, a respected sultan and a shrewd politician emerged today as the key men in Indonesia's new Cabinet.

President Sukarno, standing under an ornate crystal chandelier at his palace, Sunday night announced formation of the new government after a week of tough bargaining.

The key men are Lt. Gen. Suharto, who took over the government March 11 after violent student demonstrations against pro-Communists in the previous government; the Sultan of Jogjakarta, Hamengku Buwono IX, and Adam Malik, who headed Murba, an anti-Communist Socialist organization which was banned in 1965.

Lt. Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution, the former defense minister whose ouster by Sukarno last month set off the student demonstrations, was given the rank of minister and named deputy commander of Kogan, the command in charge of the "crush Malaysia" campaign. What part he will play in the Cabinet was not clear.

There was no appreciable reduction in the size of the government. The previous lineup of 100 ministers, handpicked by Sukarno, was replaced by an inner Cabinet of six deputy premiers, 34 ministers and 39 deputy ministers—a total of 79. Sukarno remains the head of the Cabinet.

"What was intended to be a tiger has given birth to an elephant," the Indonesian Herald commented.

Dear Helen: My big mouth is my trouble. I think I say everything okay, and then I get to think about how it sounded and I could walk under a worm. Like my girl's folks asked me to dinner and I was trying to impress them about how much I knew. So I made some cracks about the Governor, who my Dad doesn't like, being a Republican and it turns out my girl's father is a big wheel at the capital and will probably lose his job if the Governor isn't elected.

Everybody laughed. But I bet they didn't mean it.

Southpaws in Victory Over Dodgers

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale picked the wrong day to begin their screen careers. They were upstaged by a couple of left-handed method actors and a hidden-ball trickster.

While Koufax and Drysdale, Los Angeles' heralded holdout twins, checked into a Hollywood film studio Monday to prepare for their upcoming movie roles, Pittsburgh southpaws Bob Veale and Luke Walker collaborated for a 5-0 no-hit victory over the stage-struck Dodgers at Fort Myers, Fla.

And, at Phoenix, Ariz., the Chicago Cubs almost fooled the San Francisco Giants with a zany variation of the old hidden-ball trick, outfielder George Altman providing the sleight-of-hand.

Veale, the Pirates' bespectacled, 6-foot-6 fireballer, set down the Dodgers for seven innings, and Walker, a 22-year-old rookie, completed the no-hitter against the six batters he faced.

The Dodgers, who have dropped 11 of 16 spring games and have been shut out in three, managed only two base-runners. Tommy Davis was safe on an error in the fifth inning and Veale walked Jeff Torborg in the sixth. Willie Stargell made lunging catch of Maury Wills' liner in the first inning, but the Dodgers hit only three other balls out of the infield.

Gene Alley led the Pittsburgh attack with four hits, and Roberto Clemente had three. Veale, 17-12 last season — and No. 3 strikeout artist in the majors with 276 — pitched a one-hitter against Philadelphia Sept. 19. Walker was 12-7, with 197 strikeouts, for Asheville of the Southern League.

The Cubs played now-you-see-it now-you-don't with the Giants in the seventh inning of a game won by San Francisco 6-3.

Rookie Byron Broussard crashed against the center-field fence chasing Jim Hart's long drive, then turned and threw to the infield before collapsing. Shortstop Don Kessinger took the throw and relayed to third baseman Ron Santo, cutting down the sliding Hart.

Giants' Manager Herman Franks, however, saw Altman, who had rushed to Browne's aid, slip something into his back pocket. "He threw the wrong ball," Willie Mays shouted as Franks charged toward center field and the fans gaped.

While Franks and the umpires conducted a search, Altman was spotted handing something to second baseman Glenn Beckert, who passed it to Cubs trainer Joe Proski — and was caught in the act.

The ball Proski surrendered was spotted; the ball thrown by Browne was grass-stained green from heavy use. Browne had picked up a ball left on the field after batting practice.

Hart was awarded a ground-rule double, leaving Franks one-up on his old boss, Leo Durocher, the Cubs' pilot.

The New York Yankees snapped the Chicago White Sox nine-game winning streak 4-1 as Roger Maris hit his first spring homer and Clete Boyer clubbed his fourth. St. Louis blanked the New York Mets 3-0 behind the six-hit pitching of Ray Washburn and Tracy Stallard.

Cincinnati topped Atlanta 5-3 on Tommy Helms' two-run single in the eighth. Jim Maloney yielded one run in three innings — his first appearance for the Reds. Philadelphia trimmed Baltimore 5-3 on the tight pitching of Ray Culp and Darold Knowles.

California blasted Cleveland 11-1. Ed Kirkpatrick pacing a 14-hit assault with a single, double and homer. Bob Chance drove in two runs with a single and sacrifice fly as Washington edged Minnesota 3-2, and Eddie Kasko's inside-the-park grand slam homer led Houston past its Oklahoma City farm club 6-1.

Top Pair Are Still Dodger Holdouts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The baseball season in Los Angeles starts rolling April 12, but for two men who now appear to be ex-Los Angeles Dodgers the cameras will be rolling instead.

April 11 is the day pitchers Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale are scheduled to start Hollywood filming of a story in which a policeman is accused of murdering after shooting someone in the line of duty.

They checked into their studio Monday and, asked by a newsmen whether they were serious about acting, noted they had a contract to act, but not to play baseball.

They have declined to sign for the 1966 season on grounds the Dodgers have failed to offer more than $85,000 for Drysdale and $100,000 for Koufax. The boys had asked to split $1 million over three years.

"We wouldn't be here if we weren't serious," said Drysdale at the studio. "We are very fortunate we got the offers for these roles."

How did Koufax feel about it all?
"I'll try to do a good job as an actor, but, actually, I'd rather be on the other end in film production," he said.

Had Broken Arm, Played All Season
GRAMBLING, La. (AP) — Little All-America basketball player Johnny Comeaux of Grambling College played most of the past season with a broken right arm. It was learned Monday.

Comeaux broke the tibia bone in his right arm in late December but the exact nature of the injury was not discovered until it healed despite numerous X-rays.

The crack was discovered Monday when Comeaux entered a hospital at nearby Ruston for removal of a calcium deposit on his leg.

Comeaux missed only three games during the campaign and posted a 31-point-per-game scoring average.

Clay, Chuvalo Fight Slated for Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE

Associated Press Sports Writer TORONTO (AP) — Cassius Clay, in what could be his last fight for at least two years, risks his share of the world heavyweight title tonight against Canada's George Chuvalo in a 15-rounder that figures to be as one-sided as a fox hunt.

The undefeated, 24-year-old flash from Louisville, Ky., rates as the 7-1 favorite over the plodding, 28-year-old, 11-times-beaten Canadian champion. There has been very little betting on the fight, according to bookmakers here.

Although Toronto is Chuvalo's hometown, the Ontario Athletic Commission is not recognizing the bout as a title contest. The commission is a member of the World Boxing Association which recognizes Ernie Terrell of Chicago as its champion.

But if the bull-necked Chuvalo, who never has been knocked off his feet, should get lucky and win, there's no doubt that he will be considered the champion everywhere but in WBA territory.

Fight time is 10:30 p.m., EST. Chuvalo, the father of four boys, finished training on an optimistic and cheerful note.

The Canadian is as happy as a kid with a new sled who has just been told school has been closed because of a heavy snowfall.

Chuvalo never thought he would get the title shot and his biggest purse ever, one that could range from $50,000 to more than $100,000 depending on the gross gate at the Maple Leaf Gardens and the closed-circuit television receipts in the United States and Canada.

Chuvalo, fresh from defeats by Terrell here in November and by Eduardo Corlelli, an Argentine unknown in London last Jan. 25, fell into the Clay fight by luck. Terrell withdrew from the title showdown with Clay because his guarantee was slashed.

Clay, anxious to fight before he makes a final appeal from the draft soon, quickly accepted Chuvalo as a substitute opponent. The Canadian, ranked 10th by the WBA and ninth by Ring Magazine, said yes as quickly as a homely spinster to a marriage proposal.

"I'm not scared of him," said Chuvalo. "He can be taken. Nobody has ever roughed Clay or banged him around to any degree at all. I know this — if I can hit him, I can hurt him. If he carries the fight to me, I'll knock him out."

"If there's going to be any dirty fighting, he's going to be in real trouble," said Clay. "If I get mad, the fight will be over real quick. I hope to knock him out anyway. Nobody's ever had him on the floor so if I can knock him out I feel I will have accomplished something."

Pilot Plan Designed to Help Sports
NEW YORK (AP) — A one-year, eight-city pilot program designed to popularize participation in sports was announced today by the National Recreation and Parks Association.

"We'll try to find out how to interest people in sports," said a spokesman of the association, a private, non-profit organization. "Right now, only people who do very well in sports like to play."

The new program, which will begin in April under a $32,400 grant from Lifetime Sports Foundation, will be conducted in Seattle, Wash.; West Palm Beach, Fla.; Topeka, Kan.; Abington, Pa.; Newton, Conn.; Los Angeles; Chicago; and Dallas.

It will focus on golf, tennis, badminton and bowling.

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Buena Vista pushed five runs across in the seventh inning Monday and defeated Arkansas State Teachers College 8-5 in the opening game of a baseball doubleheader.

ASTC defeated the Storm Lake, Iowa team 7-5 in the second game. Bobby Tiner's double in the fourth brought in a run to break a 3-3 tie.

Porks, Rice Trying for Makeup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas and Rice try to make up a postponed golf match at Houston today so the Southwest Conference leader will be known.

Darkness halted the match with one foursome reaching the 17th green and the other foursome the 15th Monday.

Arkansas leads with a 5-1 record not counting the Rice result. Texas strengthened its hold on second place with a 4½-1½ victory over Texas Tech Monday, while Texas Christian hung out third spot by tying Texas A&M.

Baylor edged Southern Methodist 3½-2½ to move into undisputed fourth.

Aside from the Arkansas-Rice match there is no more conference golf this week.

Impressive Now No. 1 Derby Hope

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer IMPRESSIVE, gaining stature as Ogdon Phipps' leading Kentucky Derby hope, vies with the $100,000-added Gulfstream Park Handicap for the spotlight on Saturday's thoroughbred racing program.

The son of Court Martial was a member of the second string back of Buckpasser at the start of the year. But now that Buckpasser is on the sidelines with an injured hoof, which could prevent him from keeping the May 7 date at Churchill Downs, Impressive has moved to the front of the four-horse contingent trained by Eddie Neloy.

Neloy also has Bold and Brave and Stupendous and non-Derby nominee Poker under his wing. But none has proved as consistent as Impressive. The colt goes after his sixth victory in seven starts this year in Saturday's $25,000-added Ray Shore, a seven-furlong dash at Aqueduct.

Impressive's only defeat was by Graustark, the Derby advance book favorite. His victories include a triumph over Buckpasser.

While Impressive is taking on seven or eight rival sunder 128 pounds, the richest race of the day will be run at Gulfstream Park. Impressive will give seven pounds to Advancer and as much 17 to the others, including Exhibitionist, 114, and Quinta, 111.

Ten first-flight handicap performers, evenly divided between South American and United States bred representatives, were named for the 1¼ miles of the Gulfstream "Cap. If all start, it will be worth $114,700, with $74,700 going to the winner.

Heading the field is the three-horse South of the Border entry of Tornado, winner of the recent Donn Handicap, Boneter and Tip Viego. Mrs. Ada L. Rice's Pia Star, front-running winner of the Widener Handicap, is top weight under 120 pounds and the second choice, with the fast-closing Selar third in line, followed by Phillaneub, another South American.

Heft, was amicable and both sides expressed satisfaction with the setup during the past season.

Seymour, who turned down a three-year contract when he joined Baltimore, led the team to a second-place finish with a 38-2 record — the best since the franchise was moved here from Chicago for the 1963-64 season.

Bullets Plan Continuance of Policy
BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Bullets will continue their coach-a-year policy for at least another season.

The National Basketball Association club was left without a coach for the 1966-67 campaign when Paul Seymour announced his resignation Monday.

The 38-year-old coach, a former NBA star, said he had obligations to his family and business interests in Syracuse, N.Y., "and they come first."

Baltimore owners said they would like to fill the vacancy prior to the May draft of college players, but would not be rushed into making a decision.

Seymour said he would be available to assist the owners in the draft following the current NBA playoffs. The Bullets trail the St. Louis Hawks 2-0 in the Western Division semifinals with the next game in the best-of-five series scheduled for St. Louis Wednesday.

The parting of Seymour and the three owners, including former NBA referee Arnold Heft, was amicable and both sides expressed satisfaction with the setup during the past season.

Seymour, who turned down a three-year contract when he joined Baltimore, led the team to a second-place finish with a 38-2 record — the best since the franchise was moved here from Chicago for the 1963-64 season.

NBA Playoffs Important to Many Persons

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer There are three players and two coaches who especially would like to win the National Basketball Association playoffs because they won't be back next season, and one coach who might have to win if he wants to return.

The outcome of games Wednesday night when the best-of-five semifinals resume should determine which ones get their wish, or at last keep that wish alive.

Jack McMahon of the Royals is the coach on the spot. There were reports before the playoffs that McMahon might be on the way out. But his job should be safe if the Royals win the NBA championship or even make a good run at it.

The beginning or the end of the drive by the Royals, whose veteran forward Jack Twyman is retiring, will come when they meet the Celtics at Cincinnati.

The Royals hold a 2-1 lead — both victories were at Boston and the loss at home — and a triumph will send them into the Eastern final against Philadelphia and end the coaching career of retiring Red Auerbach, who will remain as Celtics' general manager.

However, a loss will put Boston in the driper's seat since it is unlikely the Celtics would lose three straight at home.

Cincinnati could be in trouble if Jerry Lucas can't play. He injured a knee Sunday in the Royals' 113-107 victory in which he played a key role.

There is a possibility Gus Johnson, a jumping-jack forward, who missed the last several games with a knee injury, might return to the Baltimore line-up, and this could be the spark the Bullets need to extend Paul Seymour's coaching tenure at least one game. Seymour resigned Monday to devote more time to his business interests.

Astros Put on the Carpet —How Will Records Read?

By DAVE BURGIN

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

HOUSTON — (NEA) — Texans, as proud as they are, don't mind at all jokes and wisecracks about their dome on the range.

In fact, they make most of the jokes themselves and seem to welcome new material from non-Texans.

"When people — Texans in particular — stop talking about the Astrodome," said Astrodomer thinker-upper Judge Roy Hofheinz, "that's when I'll start to worry."

After the stadium was crowned with the plastic bubble, Houston gushed with witicism about flying saucers and sun blisters. Then they laughed at outfielders hopping after multicolored fly balls.

Now, because of a plan to put synthetic grass carpeting in the infield, they're wondering if Houston housewives will be put to work vacuuming and tidying up between innings.

If that happens, will the gals also line the coaching boxes with potted plants or hang curtains in the dugout?

And so on.

"Progress," Hofheinz pontificated, "always meets with a certain amount of skepticism and joke-making."

The Houston Astros and Los Angeles Dodgers recently tested the synthetic infield. Everybody connected with the Astrodome was satisfied with the results, except that the Dodgers swept the first carpet series, 8-3 and 4-1.

The rug is scheduled for further testing April 7-10

when the Astros take on Detroit and then Minnesota in exhibition games.

CARPET CLEANING—Houston Astros pitcher Dick Farrell fields a ball on an experimental infield of synthetic grass in Houston's Astrodome. Shortstop Bob Lillis observes Farrell's carpet-cleaning.

filtered through the dome and partly to cut our high costs of resodding the infield several times during the season," he said.

The carpet, cut in 14-foot wide strips and zipped together, has a quarter-inch base of hard rubber topped with imitation nylon grass nine-sixteenths of an inch deep. The edges of the carpeting are tucked under boards and tied to taut springs which keep the infield from wrinkling.

The base paths, pitcher's mound and home-plate area still are real dirt.

"You get a true bounce on the carpet," said Houston third baseman Bob Aspromonte. "It might be a little fast, but no faster than the infield at Los Angeles."

Said Astro shortstop Sonny Jackson, "It's good but sometimes clods of dirt get on the grass. They should sweep it oftener."

With any official approval of the rug, there is one possible drawback so far unmentioned — the problem of further fattening already obese record books, to wit:

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE
Washington School District, No. 12, P. O. Box 68, Washington, Arkansas, 71862.
Notice of School Desegregation Plan Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
This Notice is made available to inform you about the Desegregation of our schools. Keep a Copy of this Notice. It will answer many questions about school desegregation.
1. Desegregation Plan in Effect.
The Washington public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin.
2. Thirty-Day Spring Choice Period.
Each student or his parent, or other adult person acting as parent, is required to choose the school the student will attend next school year. The choice period will begin on March 29 and close April 29, 1966.
3. Explanatory Letters and School Choice Forms.
On the first day of the choice period, an explanatory letter and this notice will be sent by first-class mail to the parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student then in the schools who is expected to attend school the following school year. A school choice form will be sent with each letter, together with a return envelope addressed to the Superintendent. Additional copies of the letter, this notice and the choice form are freely available to the public at any school and at the Superintendent's office.
4. Returning the Choice Forms.
Parents and students, to their option, may return the completed choice forms by hand to any school or by mail to the Superintendent's office, at any time during the 30-day choice period. No preference will be given for choosing early during the choice period. A choice is required for each student. No assignment to a school can be made unless a choice is made first.
5. Choice Form Information.
The school choice form lists the names, locations and grades offered for each school. The reasons for any choice made are not to be stated. The form asks for the name, address and age of the student, the school and grade currently or last attended, the school chosen for the following year, the appropriate signature and whether the form has been signed by the student or his parent. Any letter or other written communication which identifies the student and the school he wishes to attend will be deemed just as valid as if submitted on the choice form supplied by the school system. The names of students and the schools they choose or are assigned to under the plan will not be made public by school officials.
6. Course and Program Information.
To guide students and parents in making a choice of school, listed below, by schools, are the courses and programs which are not given at every school in this school system.
The courses that Clow High School offers but Lincoln High School does not are economics, geography, and music.
The courses that Lincoln offers but Clow does not are chemistry, advanced science, Arkansas history, American government, occupations, and guidance.
The courses and programs that are offered at Hope and Yergers High Schools but are not offered at Clow and Lincoln are physical science, physics, speech, Latin, Spanish, general math, journalism, shorthand, office practice, band, bookkeeping and football.
Clow has a "C" rating. Lincoln is expected to have an "A" rating. Hope and Yergers High Schools are "North Central" rated.
7. Signing the Choice Form.
A choice form may be signed by a parent or other adult acting as parent. A student who has reached the age of 15 at the time of choice, or will enter the ninth or any higher grade, may sign his own choice form. The student's choice shall be controlling unless a different choice is exercised by his parent before the end of the period during which the student exercises his choice.
8. Processing of Choices.
No choice will be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In cases where granting all choices for any school would cause overcrowding, the students choosing the school live closest to it will be assigned to that school. Whenever a choice is to be denied, overcrowding will be determined by a uniform standard applicable to all schools in the system.
9. Notice of Assignment, Second Choice.
All students and their parents will be promptly notified in writing of their school assignments. Should any student be denied his choice because of overcrowding he will promptly be notified and given a choice among all other schools in the system where space is available.
10. Students Moving Into the Community.
A choice of school for any student who will be new to the school system may be made during the spring 30-day choice period or at any other time before he enrolls in school. An explanatory letter, this notice and the school choice form will be given out for each new student as soon as the school system knows about the student. At least seven days will be allowed for the return of the choice form when a choice is made after the spring 30-day choice period. A choice must be made for each student. No assignment to any school can be made unless a choice is made first.
11. Students Entering First Grade.
The parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of every child entering the first grade, is required to choose the school his child will attend. Choices will be made under the same free choice process used for students new to the school system in other grades, as provided in paragraph 10.
12. Priority of Late Choices.
No choice made after the end of the spring 30-day choice period may be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In the event of overcrowding, choices made during the 30-day choice period will have first priority. Overcrowding will be determined by the standard provided for in paragraph 8. Any parent or student whose first choice is denied because of overcrowding will be given a second choice in the manner provided for in paragraph 9.
13. Tests, Health Records and Other Entrance Requirements.
Any academic tests or other procedures used in assigning students to schools, grades, classrooms, sections, courses of study, or for any other purpose will be applied uniformly to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. No choice of school will be denied because of failure at the time of choice to provide any health record, birth certificate, or other document. The student will be tentatively assigned in accordance with the plan and the choice made, and given ample time to obtain any required document. Curriculum, credit, and promotion procedures will not be applied in such a way as to hamper freedom of choice of any student.
14. Choices Once Made Cannot be Altered.
Once a choice has been submitted, it may not be changed, even though the choice period has not ended. The choice is binding for the entire school year to which it applies, except in the case of (1) compelling hardship, (2) change of residence to a place where another school is closer, (3) the availability of a school designed to fit the special needs of a physically handicapped student, (4) the availability at another school of a course of study required by the student, which is not available at the school chosen.
15. All Other Aspects of Schools Desegregated.
All school-connected services, facilities, athletics, activities and programs are open to all on a desegregated basis. A student attending school for the first time on a desegregated basis may not be subject to any disqualification or waiting period for participation in activities and programs, including athletics, which might otherwise apply because he is a transfer student. All transportation furnished by the school system will also operate on a desegregated basis. Facilities will be desegregated, and no staff member will lose his position because of race, color or national origin. This includes any case where less staff is needed because schools are closed or enrollment is reduced.
16. Attendance Across School System Lines.
No arrangement will be made or permission granted, by this school system for any students living in the community it serves to attend school in another school system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. The Washington School District will make arrangements for students of either race, in grades nine through twelve to attend either Hope High School or Yergers High School, provided the student desires to attend because of higher rated school or to receive the benefits of something offered there which is not available in the Washington District. The Washington School District will grant permission for students of another school district to attend one of its schools for similar reasons.
17. Violations To Be Reported.
It is a violation of our desegregation plan for any school official or teacher to influence or coerce any person in the making of a choice or to threaten any person with penalties or promise favors for any choice made. It is also a violation of Federal regulations for any person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, retaliate or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with the free making of a choice of school. Any person having any knowledge of any violation of these prohibitions should report the facts immediately by mail or phone to the Equal Education Opportunities Program, U. S. Any other violation of the desegregation plan or other discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in the school system is also a violation of Federal requirements, and should likewise be reported. Anyone with a complaint to report should first bring it to the attention of local school officials, unless he feels it would not be helpful to do so. If local officials do not correct the violation promptly, any person familiar with the facts of the violation should report them immediately to the U. S. Office of Education at the above address or phone number.

LEGAL NOTICE
LEGAL NOTICE
Guernsey School District No. 23, Route 4, Hope, Arkansas, 71801.
Notice of School Desegregation Plan Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
This Notice is made available to inform you about the Desegregation of our schools. Keep a Copy of this Notice. It will answer many questions about school desegregation.
1. Desegregation Plan in Effect.
The Guernsey public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin.
2. Thirty-Day Spring Choice Period.
Each student or his parent, or other adult person acting as parent, is required to choose the school the student will attend next school year. The choice period will begin on March 29 and close April 29, 1966.
3. Explanatory Letters and School Choice Forms.
On the first day of the choice period, an explanatory letter and this notice will be sent by first-class mail to the parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student then in the schools who is expected to attend school the following school year. A school choice form will be sent with each letter, together with a return envelope addressed to the Superintendent. Additional copies of the letter, this notice and the choice form are freely available to the public at any school and at the Superintendent's office.
4. Returning the Choice Forms.
Parents and students, to their option, may return the completed choice forms by hand to any school or by mail to the Superintendent's office, at any time during the 30-day choice period. No preference will be given for choosing early during the choice period. A choice is required for each student. No assignment to a school can be made unless a choice is made first.
5. Choice Form Information.
The school choice form lists the names, locations and grades offered for each school. The reasons for any choice made are not to be stated. The form asks for the name, address and age of the student, the school and grade currently or last attended, the school chosen for the following year, the appropriate signature and whether the form has been signed by the student or his parent. Any letter or other written communication which identifies the student and the school he wishes to attend will be deemed just as valid as if submitted on the choice form supplied by the school system. The names of students and the schools they choose or are assigned to under the plan will not be made public by school officials.
6. Course and Program Information.
To guide students and parents in making a choice of school, listed below, by schools, are the courses and programs which are not given at every school in this school system.
The courses that Clow High School offers but Lincoln High School does not are economics, geography, and music.
The courses that Lincoln offers but Clow does not are chemistry, advanced science, Arkansas history, American government, occupations, and guidance.
The courses and programs that are offered at Hope and Yergers High Schools but are not offered at Clow and Lincoln are physical science, physics, speech, Latin, Spanish, general math, journalism, shorthand, office practice, band, bookkeeping and football.
Clow has a "C" rating. Lincoln is expected to have an "A" rating. Hope and Yergers High Schools are "North Central" rated.
7. Signing the Choice Form.
A choice form may be signed by a parent or other adult acting as parent. A student who has reached the age of 15 at the time of choice, or will enter the ninth or any higher grade, may sign his own choice form. The student's choice shall be controlling unless a different choice is exercised by his parent before the end of the period during which the student exercises his choice.
8. Processing of Choices.
No choice will be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In cases where granting all choices for any school would cause overcrowding, the students choosing the school live closest to it will be assigned to that school. Whenever a choice is to be denied, overcrowding will be determined by a uniform standard applicable to all schools in the system.
9. Notice of Assignment, Second Choice.
All students and their parents will be promptly notified in writing of their school assignments. Should any student be denied his choice because of overcrowding he will promptly be notified and given a choice among all other schools in the system where space is available.
10. Students Moving Into the Community.
A choice of school for any student who will be new to the school system may be made during the spring 30-day choice period or at any other time before he enrolls in school. An explanatory letter, this notice and the school choice form will be given out for each new student as soon as the school system knows about the student. At least seven days will be allowed for the return of the choice form when a choice is made after the spring 30-day choice period. A choice must be made for each student. No assignment to any school can be made unless a choice is made first.
11. Students Entering First Grade.
The parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of every child entering the first grade, is required to choose the school his child will attend. Choices will be made under the same free choice process used for students new to the school system in other grades, as provided in paragraph 10.
12. Priority of Late Choices.
No choice made after the end of the spring 30-day choice period may be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In the event of overcrowding, choices made during the 30-day choice period will have first priority. Overcrowding will be determined by the standard provided for in paragraph 8. Any parent or student whose first choice is denied because of overcrowding will be given a second choice in the manner provided for in paragraph 9.
13. Tests, Health Records and Other Entrance Requirements.
Any academic tests or other procedures used in assigning students to schools, grades, classrooms, sections, courses of study, or for any other purpose will be applied uniformly to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. No choice of school will be denied because of failure at the time of choice to provide any health record, birth certificate, or other document. The student will be tentatively assigned in accordance with the plan and the choice made, and given ample time to obtain any required document. Curriculum, credit, and promotion procedures will not be applied in such a way as to hamper freedom of choice of any student.
14. Choices Once Made Cannot be Altered.
Once a choice has been submitted, it may not be changed, even though the choice period has not ended. The choice is binding for the entire school year to which it applies, except in the case of (1) compelling hardship, (2) change of residence to a place where another school is closer, (3) the availability of a school designed to fit the special needs of a physically handicapped student, (4) the availability at another school of a course of study required by the student, which is not available at the school chosen.

school of a course of study required by the student, which is not available at the school chosen.
15. All Other Aspects of Schools Desegregated.
All school-connected services, facilities, athletics, activities and programs are open to all on a desegregated basis. A student attending school for the first time on a desegregated basis may not be subject to any disqualification or waiting period for participation in activities and programs, including athletics, which might otherwise apply because he is a transfer student. All transportation furnished by the school system will also operate on a desegregated basis. Facilities will be desegregated, and no staff member will lose his position because of race, color or national origin. This includes any case where less staff is needed because schools are closed or enrollment is reduced.
16. Attendance Across School System Lines.
No arrangement will be made or permission granted, by this school system for any students living in the community it serves to attend school in another school system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. The Washington School District will make arrangements for students of either race, in grades nine through twelve to attend either Hope High School or Yergers High School, provided the student desires to attend because of higher rated school or to receive the benefits of something offered there which is not available in the Washington District. The Washington School District will grant permission for students of another school district to attend one of its schools for similar reasons.
17. Violations To Be Reported.
It is a violation of our desegregation plan for any school official or teacher to influence or coerce any person in the making of a choice or to threaten any person with penalties or promise favors for any choice made. It is also a violation of Federal regulations for any person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, retaliate or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with the free making of a choice of school. Any person having any knowledge of any violation of these prohibitions should report the facts immediately by mail or phone to the Equal Education Opportunities Program, U. S. Office of Education, Washington, D. C. 20202 (telephone 202-962-0333). The name of any person reporting any violation will not be disclosed without his consent. Any other violation of the desegregation plan or other discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in the school system is also a violation of Federal requirements, and should likewise be reported. Anyone with a complaint to report should first bring it to the attention of local school officials, unless he feels it would not be helpful to do so. If local officials do not correct the violation promptly, any person familiar with the facts of the violation should report them immediately to the U. S. Office of Education at the above address or phone number.

Court Ends Long Struggle in History
By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — A long struggle in American history ended Thursday in the Supreme Court.
For years efforts were made in Congress to kill poll taxes in Southern states. This was the reasoning: The taxes were intended to keep Negroes from voting and were thus one more form of racial discrimination.
But Southern senators always frustrated such efforts with a filibuster.
Then in 1964 the 24th Amendment was adopted, banning poll taxes as a requirement for voting in federal elections. It didn't ban them in state or local elections.
Douglas gave a good insight into why the court does not stick to past decisions of the court but in a number of cases has reversed them.
We wish to express our sincere appreciation for the prayers, flowers, and gifts from our many friends during Walter G. Potter's stay in the hospital both here and in Shreveport.

Chronic Interstitial Cystitis Is Very Difficult to Cure

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—A urologist says I have interstitial cystitis. What is stretched. Is this a major or the cause? What is the best treatment? What would cause the shrinking?

A—Interstitial cystitis is a chronic inflammation of the deep layers of the bladder with small ulcers. It is more common in women than in men. It is often associated with diverticulitis (infected outpouchings) of the colon. It may be caused by a variety of germs, but the usually harmless colon bacillus is a frequent offender.

The disease is easy to treat but hard to cure. Antibiotics and urinary antiseptics offer the best chance for a cure. One report suggests that in some women emotional stress may bring on an attack and when such is the case an injection of ergotamine taken as soon as the attack starts will give prompt relief.

Q—I get attacks of acute catarrhal cystitis. What would cause them and what can be done for them?

A—This, too, is usually caused by an infection which may reach the bladder through the blood stream or from the outside, especially if it has been necessary to insert a catheter into the bladder. It may occur in both men and women.

Prompt treatment is necessary to prevent it from becoming chronic. Drugs to alkalize the urine, combined with a low protein diet, will help to shorten the course of the disease but antibiotics are required to get rid of the causative germs.

Q—The doctor says the outlet of my bladder is shrinking, Alabama, Mississippi, Texas and Virginia kept the tax. Thursday the Supreme Court in a 6-3 decision, outlawed the poll tax altogether. While the case decided was from Virginia, the language of the decision left no doubt it applies to all other poll-tax states in all elections.

Ironically, while five rather poor Virginia Negroes brought the suit, the court did not base its decision on racial discrimination but on economic discrimination.

Justice William O. Douglas, speaking for the majority, said: "We conclude that a state violates the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment whenever it makes the affluence of the voter or payment of any fee an election standard."

"Voter qualifications have no relation to wealth nor to paying or not paying this or any other tax... Wealth, like race, creed or color is not germane to one's ability to participate intelligently in the electoral process."

"To introduce wealth or payment of a fee as a measure of a voter's qualifications is to introduce a capricious or irrelevant factor."

Douglas made it clear the majority considers the poll tax "invidiously discriminatory."

It took the United States a long time to reach Thursday's decision.

The First Amendment of the Constitution simply says states can set their own qualifications for voting except that those voting for members of Congress must have the same qualifications as those voting for state legislatures.

The 14th Amendment (1868) said a state may not abridge the "privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States" or deny any person of "life, liberty, or property without due process of law."

It was assumed for a time those provisions did not apply to voting rights. So the 15th Amendment (1870) was not through to say specifically that there must be no discrimination in voting rights.

For most of American history it was held that the various constitutional provisions did not apply to women and they had no right to vote. The 19th Amendment had to be approved in 1920 to assure them that right.

And as late as 1931 the Supreme Court upheld the right of a state (Georgia) to have a poll tax. But meanwhile in other voting areas the court began to feel the 14th Amendment did apply to voting rights.

Douglas gave a good insight into why the court does not stick to past decisions of the court but in a number of cases has reversed them.

Q—My lab report reads: "Culture shows alpha hemolytic streptococcus. What does this mean?"

A—Alpha hemolytic (blood-destroying) streptococcus is the germ responsible for scarlet fever, erysipelas, and many cases of wound infection and sore throat. It is widely distributed in our environment. Whether it causes illness depends on the size of the dose of the germs introduced into the body, the virulence of the strain of the germ and the state of immunity of the invaded body.

These germs may invade any part of the body. An acute infection may lead to such complications as rheumatic fever, rheumatic heart disease, nephritis (Bright's disease) and pneumonia.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — A number of people — 198 of them — have signed a batch of proposals urging a new policy toward Red China. It looks like a bundle of wishful thinking, with some realities shoved under the rug.

A small group of scholars on China drew up the proposals which were circulated by the Association for Asian Studies among its 2,700 members. The 198 who signed included citizens, high school teachers, college professors.

One proposal: The United States should stop preventing Red China's admittance to the United Nations on the grounds that peace in Asia would be easier to obtain with the Communist Chinese inside the world organization.

The United States has been able to block U.N. membership for Red China since 1950. But the Red Chinese have insisted that, if they go in, Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist Chinese government on Formosa must be thrown out.

But this government has a mutual defense treaty with Chiang's government, which is an American ally and has been backed and protected by the United States ever since the Korean War.

But while the 198 signers want Red China in the United Nations, and there is no indication the Red Chinese have changed their mind about wanting Chiang's China out, the signers say the United States must maintain its relations with Chiang. This in effect means two Chinas.

But the Red Chinese insist there is only one China and that Formosa and the Chinese there belong to mainland China. They're bent on taking it when they can. And Chiang won't accept the idea of two Chinas, either.

The 198 signers suggest that recognition of Red China as a legitimate government — a recognition refused by this country ever since the Communists took control of the mainland in 1949 — "offers a means of conducting business and settling disputes."

But only last Sunday, Dean Rusk, secretary of state, listed a number of unsuccessful attempts to establish some worthwhile contacts with Red China.

He said the Red Chinese answer to all such efforts, made during the regular meetings between the U.S. and Chinese diplomats at Warsaw, was this: Letting them have Formosa was a first condition.

The signers had another suggestion: Before the United States would agree to withdraw its forces from Asia, it would want an understanding that the Red Chinese would not give military aid to Communist subversive groups elsewhere.

Opening Play Needed Thought

Hard Luck Joe won the club lead with his king. He cashed dummy's king of trumps and continued by playing king, ace and his small spade for dummy to trump. Up to this point his plays had been made with lightning speed but now he stopped to think for the first time. Then he ruffed with dummy's eight of trumps and smiled happily when East followed.

His next play was dummy's queen of trumps and when East followed small Joe went into his second huddle. Finally, he decided to let the queen hold.

When West showed out Joe remarked, "I finally guessed one." Then he cashed dummy's ace and queen of clubs in order to get rid of a diamond. Unfortunately for poor Joe East ruffed and eventually Joe had to lose two diamond tricks.

"My usual tough luck," moaned Joe. "Trumps break four-one and clubs six-two in order to rob me of another slam."

It was tough luck but Joe made his own tough luck at trick one. Had he only stopped to visualize the whole play of the hand Joe would have won the first club trick in dummy. This play looks silly on the surface. In general with this type of holding you should win the first trick in the short hand but this time the general rule should have been chucked out the window.

If Joe had won that first trick in dummy the play would have gone the same way up to the point when Joe let dummy's queen of trumps hold. Then Joe would have come to his hand with the king of clubs, pulled East's last two trumps, gone back to dummy with the ace of diamonds and taken his diamond discard on the ace of clubs with perfect safety.

Day of Prime Minister Is a Busy One

By KELLY SMITH
WASHINGTON (AP) — A handsome dark-eyed teen-ager moves up behind Indira Gandhi and whispers, "Mother..."
She turns and talks quietly a moment, then urges him away, as a busy mother would.

Chill, gusting wind rumples her black short-cropped hair and she lifts her silk scarf to preserve a coiffure, as a woman does.

President Johnson leads her across the White House lawn in a ceremonial review of the troops. Her steps are long, manly strides — taken with the content air of a prime minister, which she is.

Indira Gandhi, 48, head of the Indian government, widow, mother of two sons, is a veteran politician who remembers that in her parents' home "childhood games were political ones."

"She's a pro, hard as steel," says a close associate. "She believes in India, defends it and fights for it. She's tough and can't be easily fooled."

After her welcome at the White House Monday, the trim and tiny Mrs. Gandhi smiled, almost shyly — then after the President spoke, waited nervously for the platform to be raised six inches for her to speak.

She stepped to the lectern, slipped a folded paper from an inside coat pocket, and with her gloves in one hand, her orange sari flapping in the wind, she said firmly:

"India and the United States cannot and should not take each other for granted or allow their relations to drift."

Later, in Arlington National Cemetery, she placed an orange, green and white wreath — colors of the Indian flag — at President John F. Kennedy's grave, then silently stood a moment alone looking beyond it, across the Potomac River, to the Lincoln Memorial.

She had known, been entertained by, and greatly admired Kennedy.

Mrs. Gandhi's two-day schedule, in her words, "is very very busy, but wonderful. I enjoy it."

She has been here half a dozen times before and is seeing many old friends.

At a reception for 1,400 at the Indian Embassy, Mrs. Gandhi had retired to a private room to rest when Secretary of State Dean Rusk showed up late.

Someone ran to get her. Within minutes the prime minister was bounding down a small staircase with the grace of a girl and sparkle of a bride.

"Hello, hello..." she said, greeting Rusk.

Her sons Rajiv, 21, and Sanjay, 19, are visiting Washington for the first time and she has taken time while riding in their official limousine, to point out tourist attractions.

Sanjay left his coat at one function and was properly scolded. Rajiv looks after his mother from a distance, waiting for a hint that she needs something.

Woman-like, she changed saris several times during the day, because of her strenuous walking, she brought along several pairs of shoes: sandal-type heels and low block heels of various colors.

Between functions, a hair-dresser meets the party at Blair House, where Mrs. Gandhi is staying. Hot tea, coffee and tea snacks are handy.

Walking into the White House Monday, she hesitated a moment and looked up.

"She's looking at the honor guard," whispered a lady.

"No," corrected an Indian friend. "She's watching a bird. The prime minister is a big bird watcher."

Gadsden Purchase
James Gadsden arranged for the United States to buy the strip of land along the Gila River known as the Gadsden Purchase while he was U.S. minister to Mexico.

Two File for Johnson's Seat

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two candidates hurried to the secretary of state's office today to file for the Arkansas Supreme Court post being vacated by Justice Jim Johnson.

Johnson, whose eight-year term expires Dec. 31, announced Saturday that he would resign effective April 4. He is expected to run for governor.

Circuit Judge Tom J. Gentry of Little Rock, a former attorney general, and James A. Ross, an attorney of Monticello, arrived before 9 a.m. to file.

Harris Joins New Gazette Dept.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A newly created Department of Information, Public Affairs and Special Projects of the Arkansas Gazette will be headed by former Associated Press newsman Sam G. Harris.

Harris has been an executive assistant to W. R. Stephens, president and board chairman of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co., since 1958.

He joined the Gazette in 1948 after serving 13 years with the Associated Press and served as editor. Harris has also worked for newspapers at Fort Smith and Pine Bluff.

Has Pneumonia for 18th Time

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Judy Lynn Funsch, who has had pneumonia 18 times in her five years of life, remains in fair condition but with an improved appetite, doctors at the University of Michigan Medical Center reported Thursday.

The 28-pound blonde child from Flint, Mich., underwent intricate heart surgery two weeks ago today, and developed pneumonia for the 18th time.

But without the operation—to remove an obstruction from a heart vein—she would have died within a few years, doctors say.

Electric Firm Would Expand

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Public Service Commission was asked Monday to allow the Southwest Electric Co-operative to construct 69,000-volt transmission lines in Polk and Lafayette counties.

The co-operative wants to build an 18-mile line from near a cost of $198,000 and a two-mile line to near Brdales at mile facility to link the De Queen-to-Mena line with a substation near Wickes at a cost of $24,000.

It also seeks authority to construct two substations at $90,000 each near Lewisville and Bradley and to spend $49,824 to update the Wickes substation.

It's 1968.

(Aren't you glad you bought a Pontiac?)

Sure you're glad you picked a Wide-Track Catalina back in '66. Because year after year the record book shows Pontiac with one of the best resale values in the industry. After all, used car buyers go for that handsome Pontiac styling and lusty performance, too. For the steady Wide-Track ride, and everything else that has made us third in sales every year since 1961. (We know it's still '66—still time to price a Catalina.)

'Great Society' Budget May Hit $21.5 Billion

If in this confused day of government propaganda you still believe in hearing both sides of a proposition then you will be startled to learn what one of Big Government's critics has come up with on the cost of the politicians' Great Society.

As budgeted by the Johnson administration for 1966 its annual cost appears to be 3.1 billion dollars — a relatively modest sum for a relatively prodigal bunch of spenders. But that's just the beginning.

In Washington the Council of State Chambers of Commerce maintains a research bureau headed by Eugene F. Rinta, and in a press release yesterday Mr. Rinta said his studies indicated the annual cost will rise to 21.5 billions — or sevenfold — not later than 1970.

The 1965 figure, he points out, is for actual expenditures; but the sum increases with the 1966 and 1967 budget estimates — and taking into account further expansion plans now proposed in Congress you come up with 21.5 billions by 1970, which is close to 50% of the current cost of national defense.

Anyone familiar with the ways of politicians when it comes to dishing out welfare payments from an ever-growing federal debt doesn't have to be an advocate of chambers of commerce to believe what Mr. Rinta says is true. It is not only possible but probable.

How, you may ask, has the simple taxpayer citizen completely lost control of his government? It started when the government forbade private citizens from owning gold. With nothing to fear from the competition of private citizens measuring federal currency against the purchasing power of gold, the politicians were given a free hand. They ran up a limitless debt and resorted to printing-press currency and tin and copper coins. And it will go on until the voting public suddenly feels the pinch of so-called dollars that won't buy very much.

Keystone of The Great Society program, of course, is the campaign to abolish poverty. But a thoughtful citizen will ask: How can you abolish poverty without controlling people's lives? You can give them money, but you can't guarantee them against poverty unless you also dictate how they shall spend that money.

Is The Great Society program really designed to abolish poverty, or is it a not-so-secret weapon to abolish wealth? Not merely great wealth, but the smaller wealth of millions of people working for wages and hoping to avoid federal hand-outs.

U.S., India Agree on Education

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi, ending their White House talks today, have agreed on the formation of a $300-million educational foundation in India which Johnson said would help find "new ways to meet age-old problems."

The President announced the agreement Monday night at a formal White House dinner honoring Mrs. Gandhi, who arrived in Washington Monday for a state visit.

The two leaders continue their conference today. A communiqué was to be issued after their final 5 p.m. meeting. Mrs. Gandhi also was to address a noon luncheon of the National Press Club.

Indian officials make no secret of their hopes the talks will result in expansion of U.S. aid to India, now facing severe food shortages.

Mrs. Gandhi was reported pleased with her initial conferences with Johnson. "She was delighted at the warmth of her reception and the way her conversations were put on a friendly and understanding footing," said B.G. Verghese, Indian information adviser.

White House sources said Mrs. Gandhi had been consulted and is agreeable to the basic outlines of the educational foundation, to be patterned after the Rockefeller and Ford foundations. Details of its implementation are to be worked out later.

China Rejects U.S. Bid for More Contacts

By JOHN RODERICK
TOKYO (AP) — Red China today rejected American overtures for closer contacts between the two countries and called again for U.S. abandonment of Formosa.

"So long as the U.S. government does not change its hostile policy toward China and refuses to pull out its armed forces from Taiwan (Formosa) and the Taiwan Strait," said an editorial in the official Peking People's Daily, "the normalization of Chinese-American relations is entirely out of the question and so is the solution of such a concrete question as exchange of visits between personnel of the two countries."

The editorial said that the United States has made "quite an issue" of sending American newsmen, physicians, scientists and scholars to China.

It continued: "Everybody knows that the cause of the continued strained relations between China and America has nothing to do with the American doctors who have not come to China to study its medical and health conditions; nor with the Chinese correspondents who have not gone to the United States to report on the American way of life."

"The source of all the tension springs from the extremely hostile policy that the U.S. government persistently pursues towards China, and primarily because the U.S. is occupying by force China's province of Taiwan (Formosa)."

The paper, which is the organ of the Chinese Communist party, reacted sarcastically to U.S. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's declaration March 13 that the United States is following a policy of containing Red China's power without seeking to isolate China from the rest of the world.

"Listen, Chinese people!" the editorial says. "The American gentlemen have kindly decided not to 'isolate' us any longer. Should not this move us to tears of gratitude?"

It said the United States had tried to isolate China for 16 years but had found that this did not work.

The People's Daily accused the United States of "feigning eagerness" to improve relations with China as a maneuver in preparation for a new assault. "Obsessed with the idea of widening the war in Viet Nam," it said, "the Johnson administration is sliding down the path of 'escalation' and preparing to expand its aggressive war to all parts of Indochina, and even to China."

Charges Dismissed in Watts Shooting

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Municipal Judge Kenneth L. Holaday dismissed charges Monday against two brothers accused of taking part in a shooting believed to have triggered the March 15 riot in Watts.

The prosecution's only witness said he could not positively identify Carlos Garcia, 19, and his brother, Robert, 20, as being in a car from which a shotgun blast was fired into a liquor store March 14.

The witness, George E. Sanders, 21, was wounded in the right arm.

Court Decides 4th District Election Rules

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court set the rules Monday for an election to fill the vacancy in the 4th Congressional District. But the state Democratic Committee chairman said no immediate action would be taken to set a primary.

The court ruled that the election to choose a successor to Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., must be held in the 20 counties designated in reapportionment of the district in 1965.

Harris resigned the seat Feb. 2 and was sworn in as a federal judge at El Dorado Feb. 3.

The Supreme Court also ruled that party primaries may be held to determine the nominees of each political party for the special general election.

Leon Catlett, chairman of the state Democratic Committee, said Monday night that any action by the committee would have to await the finality of the Supreme Court's action.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett indicated during the court's proceedings Monday that the case might be appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Catlett said his committee would wait to see if this is done. He said Bennett would first have to ask the state Supreme Court for a rehearing on its decision. Otherwise, he said, Bennett would not have exhausted all the remedies at the state level.

Gov. Orval Faubus said he still preferred selecting the Democratic nominee through a special primary and he presumed the state committee would meet to set a primary date.

The governor said he would set a tentative date for a special general election as soon as possible.

The Republican Party has no necessity for a primary. Its only candidate for the House seat is Lynne Lowe of Texarkana.

Several Democrats have filed for the race, including Dean Murphy and Richard Arnold of Texarkana, Charles Honey of Prescott and David Pryor of Camden.

Republican Travis Beeson of Camden, who filed the suit leading to the Supreme Court decision, said it was Faubus' duty to call a special election in the 20-county district as soon as possible.

"Any further maneuvering by the attorney general and the state administration can only be designed to serve their own selfish purposes," he said.

Beeson filed the suit after the Democratic Party set its primary election in the old 28-county district from which Harris was elected. The Republican Party had scheduled its primary in the reapportioned district. The Supreme Court's decision affirmed a Pulaski Chancery Court ruling in the suit.

Living Cost Increase Due to Food Prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sharply higher food prices boosted living costs five-tenths of 1 per cent last month, the sharpest February rise in 15 years, the Labor Department reported today.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said fresh vegetables prices rose 10.5 per cent to a record February level, meat prices rose nearly 2 per cent, eggs 4 per cent and poultry 8 per cent, making up three-quarters of the big jump in the consumer price index.

The rise brought prices to 2.5 per cent above a year ago, the biggest annual jump since 1958, said Asst. Commissioner Arnold Chase of the BLS.

The increase brought the consumer price index to 111.7, meaning it cost $11.17 to purchase items in February that cost $10 in the 1957-59 period on which the index is based.

Chase insisted the increases showed no sign of "inflationary psychology" among American consumers.

Klan Leader Sought by U.S. Officers

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — A Mississippi Ku Klux Klan leader, described by the FBI as armed and dangerous, was sought by federal and state officers today in connection with the death of a Negro Civil rights worker.

Sam Holloway Bowers Jr., 41, said by the FBI to be the imperial wizard of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan in this Deep South state, was also charged with being a fugitive.

Federal agents, joined by eight investigators from the Mississippi Highway Patrol arrested 12 men identified as Klansmen Monday to climax an intensive investigation into the Jan. 10 death of Vernon Dahmer. A 13th man was arrested in Houston, Tex.

Bowers slipped away from FBI agents who had followed him Sunday night to a cafe in Laurel, his hometown.

Bowers was recently described by investigators for the House Committee on Un-American Activities as a Klan chieftain who exhorted his followers to keep a Bible handy and bear no malice when eliminating enemies.

$50,000 Now Sought for Kidnap Victim

MIAMI, Fl. (AP) — In flurry of new, secret activity, police intensified today an already massive hunt for kidnaped Daniel Goldman as the price on the youth's head doubled to $50,000.

After hours of anxious waiting for a telephone call from the kidnaper, four officers sped away from the 18-year-old victim's home this morning carrying a bulging, brown leather briefcase.

But there was no comment from investigators on whether the burly gunman who abducted the boy at gunpoint from his home had made a promised but apparently long-delayed contact.

The kidnaper slipped into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Goldman through an unlocked patio door early Monday, bound the parents with venetian-blind cord and forced their only child to leave in his own white car.

Five detectives spent the night with his family, tape-recording every phone call.

As the search for Daniel and his kidnaper moved into the second day, a marked increase in police activity was observed at the Goldman home.

Officers and technicians entered and left the fashionable home every few minutes and another special telephone line, the third — was installed, apparently to permit additional monitoring of incoming calls.

Police said their fears began increasing when the kidnaper, described as extremely dangerous, failed to call the Goldmans between 6 and 7 p.m. as he had promised. In the call, he was to detail instructions for delivering the money.

If he didn't get the $25,000 by 6 a.m. today he said the price would go to $50,000. Any trouble, he said, "and you'll never see your son alive again."

Mrs. Goldman went to bed early but got up each time the talk-down conversation on tape.

Voluntary Plan to Be Discussed

Ford said the 45-member council, composed of representatives of industry, education, business, agriculture, labor and of state legislators, would meet either in April or May to discuss the proposal.

He did not elaborate on details of the proposed plan.

Draft Faubus Drived Started by Bennett

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett today launched a "draft Faubus" movement.

Bennett called a news conference to announce that "responsible people" had urged him to ask the governor to reconsider his pledge not to seek a seventh term.

He would not identify these "responsible people."

And, Bennett said, these same persons have asked him to urge other prospective Democratic candidates to reconsider their situations and join him in urging Faubus to get back in the race to avoid a "blood-letting campaign" in the Democratic Party this summer.

Faubus, who was not in his office today, telephoned a statement which said:

"The statement by Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett is news to me. I, of course, appreciate the confidence which the statement indicates in my service as governor. I will have no other comment on the statement at this time."

The attorney general's plea made little impression on one prospective candidate, Justice Jim Johnson, who is resigning from the Supreme Court April 4, possibly to run for governor.

"I'm not going to comment on anything until I get off the court," Johnson said.

Then he added, after reading Bennett's statement, "It is a moving statement. It gets you right here." He tapped his heart with a grin.

Johnson said his mind was made up and nothing Bennett or Gov. Orval Faubus could do would change it.

Bennett said he had not discussed this proposal with Faubus, but he conferred with the governor Monday and spent much of the day with William J. Smith, the governor's legal adviser.

Bennett was asked if he will run if Faubus doesn't, and he said he wasn't ready to discuss his plans.

Asked why he would make such a statement, Bennett said, "The governor and I have been close for years."

A newsmen remarked, "since 1961."

"Since 1962," Bennett said.

Bennett ran against Faubus in 1960.

The breach between the two was healed some time during the next two years.

Newsmen attempted to question Bennett in detail about the statement but he side-stepped questions about his motives for issuing it.

"I don't know what you're trying to read into the statement," he objected at one point. "Why don't you go ahead and run the story? You've got enough."

Bennett said the Democrats need audited effort against Republican Winthrop Rockefeller this fall.

Asked if he thought Faubus was the only Democrat who could beat Rockefeller, he first said, "He will beat Rockefeller more handsly than anyone else."

Bennett was then asked if he thought he could beat Rockefeller, and he said, "I think I could beat him better than Orval."

The attorney general refused to say who had asked him to urge Faubus to get back into the race.

"You know we don't mention names," he said.

Bennett called the news conference about noon Monday and political insiders spent most of Monday speculating about what he intended to do.

Johnson said that during this period of speculation one of his friends handed him a note which said: "This looks like another attempt by trainer Smith and stable boy Bennett to find a horse for Faubus."
